Petitioning the Court

To modify the conditions of probation to add Special Condition Number Nine as follows:

You must not engage in any form of gambling and must not frequent any establishment where gambling is conducted as directed by the probation officer.

Cause

During Mr. Ditman's initial financial investigation, as well as computer monitoring data, the assigned supervising probation officer from the Central District of Illinois (CDIL) observed the client move U.S. Currency into Draft Kings, an online sports betting company, and wagering U.S. Currency. On November 29, 2023, Mr. Ditman admitted to his U.S. Probation Officer (USPO) that he wagered on sports using the Draft Kings online platform.

On February 6, 2024, Mr. Ditman reported to his USPO and discussed the modification of his condition of probation to prohibit gambling to maximize the amount of restitution to his victims for the financial losses that were incurred. Mr. Ditman was amenable to modifying his conditions of probation and the PROB-49 Waiver of Hearing will be attached for the Court's review. To date, Mr. Ditman has an outstanding restitution balance of $3,404,866.59. This modification will provide structure and accountability for Ms. Ditman's expenses to ensure payment to the victims.
